Comprehension: [10]The Hidden Garden

On a sunny morning, Liam was exploring the backyard of his new house. Behind a thick wall of ivy, he noticed something unusual—a wooden door, almost hidden by the plants. He pushed the ivy aside and tugged at the door. With a loud creak, it opened to reveal a small, forgotten garden filled with colorful flowers and buzzing bees.

Liam ran to tell his mother. She was surprised. “This garden used to be your grandfather’s favorite place,” she said. “He planted every flower himself. It’s been locked for many years.”

Liam and his mother decided to bring the garden back to life. Every weekend, they pulled weeds, watered plants, and planted new seeds. As they worked, his mother shared stories about Liam’s grandfather and how much he had loved nature.

The garden slowly bloomed again, and Liam felt proud. “It’s like I’m getting to know Grandpa through his garden,” he said with a smile.
